JACK ASHORE.-The sailors of the U. S. S. Benecia have been ashore this week on liberty, and their general good behavior has been remarked. THANKS .- Ours are due to Mr. Johnson, the gentlemanly " special " of the Alta, who arrived on the U. S. S. California, for files of that journal. 20 The bark Comet, hence, arrived at San Francisco Dec. 22, but up to the 30th had not been able to discharge cargo, owing to the rain storm which prevailed. Her return here was uncertain. OUR NEW HILO CORRESPONDENT -We hope for a continuance of the favors of the gentleman who writes so gracefully over the signature of "X,"

TARGET PRACTICE.—The crew of the U. S. S. Benecia were exercised at the guns on Monday afternoon, and the target practice, as seen from the signal station over Whitney's, was very good.

The Lee family, of eight persons, is reported some time in December. Our readers will remember Mr. Lee as the manager of a circus that visited Honolulu in 1870. THE VOLCANO.-The letter of our Hilo correspondent tells all that was known at that part of Hawaii up to the 10th inst., in regard to the new eruption of Mauna Loa. By return of steamer to-morrow, we shall receive full particulars. SALUTES .- Monday morning at nine o'clock, the U. S. S. Benecia, Capt. Clary, saluted the flag, which was returned from the battery on Punchbowl.

The delay in exchanging salutes was on account of the late King's funeral. On Wednesday the California saluted, which also was returned. ELECTION OF OFFICERS .- At the annual election of Pacific Hose Co. No. 1, held on Monday evening, Jan. 13, at their rooms, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term : J. H. Black, Foreman;

J. W Robertson, Asst Foreman; Alfred Castle, Secretary; Thos. Tannatt, Treasurer; H. McIntyre, QUEER ESTIMATES-Speaking of the character for veracity of one of the numerous candidates for office that the recent changes have brought into notice, our friend Blifkins remarked, "He would rather tell a lie at six months, than the truth for cash !"

THE NEVADA. - Concerning this steamer we hear that a telegram from Australia had been received at San Francisco, stating that she was 23 days on the passage hence to Auckland, and that she was to leave on the return trip, Jan. 3d. She will therefore be due on Monday.

Admiral Pennock of the California informs us, that before he had received intelligence of the late King's death, he was under orders from Washington to proceed to Honolulu and offer His Majesty the use of his ship to proceed to San Francisco, it having been stated that he proposed to go abroad on A NEW MEMBER.-Notice has been given of an election, to be holden on the 25th inst., to fill the vacancy in the representation of this city in the Legislative Assembly, caused by the advancement of Mr. Judd to the post of Attorney General. As the Assembly is likely to be prorogued by the 25th the position will probably be one of empty honor. and consequently not worth the people getting ex-

RUNAWAY .- Last Thursday forenoon, a horse with a piece of joist attached to him, came up Kaahumanu street at a furious rate, dashed into the yard and around Whitney's Bookstore, and striking head on to the iron gate of the Post-office building, carried it clean away with the mason work attached. He brought up at his stable, singularly enough without njuring any one, but is probably damaged himself.

Scurbilous and Sensational.-The Alta of the 5th, and the Chronicle of the 3d, have each a " Letter from Honolulu," both more or less unreliable and blackguard in their tone and style, the former being from the now well-known "Bob Jenkins." Now that the Alta has a special correspondent at the Islands, it is to be hoped that correct information as to matters and things here may be published over

GOOD TEMPLARS' BALL -The ball of "Queen Emma" Lodge, No. 2, which was postponed from the 2d inst. on account of the death of the late King, will take place at the Hawaiian Hotel on the 31st inst., the anniversary of His Majesty's birth. We are requested to say that tickets already purchased hold good, and that those desiring tickets can obtain them from members of the Lodge Committee, of which Mr. J. W. McGuire is chairman. ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH .- On Wednesday foreoon, Mr. Beck, an old resident, residing on Rose Lane, while employed in some domestic avocation about his premises, suddenly fell dead. Mr. Beck was a native of Copenhagen, but was reared in England. He was one of the crew of the British ship Bellerophen, when Napoleon surrended himself to the commander of that ship. Mr. Beck first arrived at these Islands in the year 1815, and has resided permanently here since 1817. He was 80 years and 7 months old at the time of his deatha

Mr. Judd's commission as Attorney General of the Kingdom was then read by the Marshal and recorded by the Clerk. Mr. Judd said that he assumed the office with a full realization of its responsibilities; that he was aware of his own deficiences, but that he felt equally sure of his desire to discharge the duties of the office with firmness and conscientious zeal. Of the Court and the members of the Bar he only asked that the same confidence and courtesy would be continued to him which they had always given him heretofore. The Presiding Justice stated that he had not known that the motion was to be made now, but that as no more fitting occasion might occur, he desired to take this public opportunity to express the high appreciation of the Court for the ability and integrity of the retiring Attorney General, and their thanks for his valuable assistance; also that the new Attorney General would have the confidence and support of the Court, and they congratulated him on THE DECORATIONS .- In our account of Inauguration Day last week, we omitted to mention that the beautiful floral crown in front of the platform in the church was the work of three ladies-Mrs. J. B. Atherton, Mrs. P. C. Jones and Mrs. W. W. Hall. Much credit is due to Marshal Parke and Deputy Marshal Dayton, for the tasteful arrangement of the interior of the church. The amount of labor performed in renovating the building, laying down new mats, and securing the galleries with iron bolts, (for they were decidedly unsafe) was severe and exhausting and occupied the entire time from noon until midnight of Wednesday.

It was evident from the appearance of the body that he had awakened some time during the night by the bleeding from the nostrils and mouth, and had found himself too weak to call for assistance. He had left his bed, and after groping around for some time, as is judged by the traces of blood around the room, had fallen near the head of the bed and expired. The body was not discovered until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time life must have ceased twelve or fifteen hours previously. His remains were taken charge of by the United States Consul, and his funeral took place on Sunday morning at half-past nine o'clock, from the Bethel Church .- On Sunday morning Mr. John Shaw, an old resident of twenty-five years standing, died suddenly at his residence in Honolulu, of aneurism, it is

I trust this additional labor will detain you from your homes, only for a short time. The present Constitution provides that the Legis-lative Assembly shall consist of the Nobles appointed by the King, and of the Representatives of the people sitting together. I present to your consideration the propriety of a separation of these two bodies, so that each will be independent of the other. This is in accordance with the principles and practice of legislation under all well regulated governments. Should you be of the opinion that there should be two Houses as formerly, I would suggest the propriety of the Ministers of the Crown having the privilege secured to them of presenting their views who arrived on Friday morning, from Kona and to the House of Representatives on important subjects words " the Legislative Assembly," and substituting Kau, reports that the eruption on Mauna Los has connected with their several departments. The Assembly has great satisfaction in having accomplished with such complete unanimity and To Article 49 of the Constitution granted on the 20th despatch the especial object for which it was called together. In presenting the Assembly at so early a day, for its consideration, such amendments of the Constitution as seem most desirable and most likely to meet the views of your people, your Majesty evinces a willingness and anxiety to adapt the organic laws of the Kingdom to the present condition, and future requirements of all classes of your subjects, that excites a lively gratitude. The Assembly will give its earnest and careful attention to the amendments presented by your Majesty and also to such others as may be properly presented by its members; and in the wish to complete the work in hand with as little delay as proper consideration of the important subjects submitted to it will admit of, the Assembly is pleased to know that it is in sympathy with your Majesty.

His Ex. A. F. Judd, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, reported the proposed amendments to the Constitution, as drafted. The report was accepted, and the House took a recess until 12 o'clock noon. Upon the re-assembling of the House, the following proposed amendment was introduced:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT To Article 63 of the Constitution granted on the 20th day of August, A. D. 1864, in accordance with Article 80 of said Constitution. That Article 63 be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the words " and of the Electors," so that the Article as amended will read as follows: "ARTICLE 63. The property qualification of the Representatives of the people may be increased by

Hon. Mr. Carter moved to amend by substituting the word "changed" for "increased." His Ex. A. F. Judd said that he thought that the Judiciary Committee had framed the amendment in accordance with the terms of His Majesty's Message. The effect of the adoption of the amendment proposed by the Hon. Mr. Carter would be to do away with the present property qualification of Representatives, and while he was of the opinion that it would be wise and just to remove that qualification from electors, he did not think it would be best to change the status of Representatives as proposed by the Hon. Mr. Carter.

Hon. Mr. Carter submitted that the House was not bound to follow the exact terms of His Majesty's Message, but that they were at liberty to present such other amendments as they thought necessary. This amendment now before us binds us to not diminish the property qualification of Representatives. As we are now making a Constitution, as we hope for all time, Mr. Carter submitted that this matter of property qualification be left so that it might be ncreased or diminished in the future as might be

Hon. Mr. Kaukaha was of the opinion that Mr. Carter's amendment was not of much importance. The people had not complained of the property qualfication of Representatives. As the people have not asked that this amendment should be made, he did not think it was best to spend time in discussing the Several members spoke for and against the amend-His Ex. Mr. Bishop was apposed to the amend-ment of Mr. Carter because he thought it was unwise to encourage frequent changes of a Law. If the change proposed by the Committee was adopted. it would not follow by any means that the property qualification would be increased. Some of the members seemed to think that there was danger of the Representatives being millionaires. He (the speaker) would be happy to see them all worth thousands. If this question was left open, there would be sure to be one or two or half a dozen in each session of the Legislature who would bring the question up, and consume valuable time. The amendment relates to quite a different matter from that touched upon in the message, and might have the effect of defeating the original proposition, by Attorney General.

The amendment proposed by Mr. Carter was put to vote, and a tie declared, the vote was taken three times and the ayes and noes called. Amendment and the Minister of the Interior, two Ministers."

The following proposed amendments were then PROPOSED AMENDMENTS To Articles 45, 4, 14, 15, 26, 22, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 48, 44, 47, 50, 51, 52, 58, 54, 55, 65, 70 and 76, of the Constitution granted August 20, A. D. 1864, in accordance with the terms of Article 80 of said Constitution. 1. That Article 45 of the Constitution be amended by striking out all after the words " is vested in the King," and substituting therefor the following words: "The House of Nobles and the House of Representatives sitting separately, each of whom has a negative on the other. 2. That Articles 4, 14, 15, 26, 28, 29, 80, 31, 33, 44, 47, 65 and 70 be amended by striking out the words "Legislative Assembly" wherever it occurs therein, and substituting the words "the Legislature." 3. That the Article 76 of the Constitution be amended by striking out all after the words " Laws shall be," and substituting therefor the words "The enacting clause of all laws shall be, be it enacted by the King, the Nobles and the Representatives of the Hawaiian Islands in Legislative Council assembled." 4.
